- direct weekly rehearsals for the SGCS String Ensemble, currently 3:30 - 4:45 pm on Monday afternoons
- prepare appropriate repertoire for the group, considering both the teaching aspect of the role, as well as the selection of suitable performance repertoire
- provide support and expertise to the Head of Music in relation to the String Ensemble
- attend and direct performances at the school and in the community when required

Essential qualities:

- Appropriate music qualifications or nearing completion
- Experience in teaching one of the orchestral string instruments and in directing string ensembles,
- A high level of written and verbal communication skills
- Proficient organisational skills
- An encouraging manner when working with students

Additional Requirements

- Valid Working with Children Check Number
- ABN for invoicing purposes
- Applicants must show an understanding of the Christian vision, mission and ethos of SGCS.

Please forward your resume, including your Working with Children Check Number and references to employment@sgcs.com.au by 4.00pm Wednesday 29 May 2024. Previous applicants need not apply
